SUBJECT: Requirement for Newspaper Advertisement of Professional Services Contracts

Effective July 1, 2019, the Virginia Public Procurement Act (VPPA) will no longer require public notice of Request for Proposals (RFPs) for professional services contracts to be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the area in which the contract is to be performed.

Accordingly, VDOT will no longer publish consultant professional services procurement opportunities in newspapers. However, they will continue to be advertised on VDOT's Consultant Procurement website, as well as through eVA.
